

Carolyn Pittman, Chair

Carolyn Pittman, formerly the Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of Maxar Technologies (NYSE:MAXR and TSX:MAXR), is a senior financial executive with over 35 years of experience with publicly traded companies, including Maxar, Huntington Ingalls Industries, and Northrop Grumman Corporation.

Carolyn has an MBA in Finance from Dallas Baptist University and a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting/Data Processing from the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. She is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Information Systems Auditor. Also, she is a graduate of the KPMG Executive Leadership Institute for Women.

Additionally, Carolyn currently serves on the Board of Directors of Minerals Technologies, Inc., Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast, and the Virginia Symphony Orchestra. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Financial Executives International, Women Corporate Directors, the Information Systems Audit and Control Association, and earned a Certificate in Board Leadership from Harvard University in 2020.

Carolyn is married to her husband, Brad, and has three children, Connor, Carson, and Claire, a Girl Scout Ambassador. Originally, from Springfield, Missouri, she lived in Dallas, Texas, for several years before relocating to Yorktown in 2011.