

Delegate Board Member

Leslie Atkins is from Savannah, Georgia—the birthplace of Girl Scouts’ founder, Juliette Gordon Low! Leslie is a Registered Nurse by profession and is currently employed at Naval Medical Center Portsmouth.

Leslie has been a Girl Scout volunteer since 2006. It all started when she answered the call to be her daughter’s Brownie Troop Leader. Leslie has held many positions as a Girl Scout volunteer; in addition to Troop Leader, she has served as Treasurer, Recruitment and Placement Coordinator, and Overseas Committee Chairperson (equivalent to Service Unit Coordinator).

Leslie serves many roles in Service Unit 350 including the Service Unit Coordinator and Volunteer Coordinator, a Service Unit Delegate, and a Delegate Member on the Board of Directors and Property Committee. Leslie is currently the Troop Leader for Troop 553, a multi-level troop.
