

Camp Fury Sensitive Issues Form

Part I: This portion is to be kept by caregiver.

Position Statement

In order to be responsive to girls’ needs and interests, some Girl Scout activities focus on subjects that may be considered sensitive or controversial. There is no definitive list of these subjects. In general, topics of a highly personal nature such as human sexuality, religious beliefs, and cultural and family values are regarded as sensitive. The Girl Scout volunteer’s role is as a caring adult who can help girls acquire their own skills and knowledge. Girls are encouraged to see that each family has its own way of doing things based on family customs, cultural background, lifestyles and so on.

Caregivers:

Each girl member is to have written approval from her caregiver to participate in sensitive issue related activities. If you have any questions or would like to discuss our plans, please contact customercare@gscgcc.org. Attendance is optional for all or part of the activities listed.

Activity:

These general topics may be covered during Camp Fury: health, hygiene, consent and personal safety.

Part II: To be completed by caregiver. This portion is to be kept by Camp Fury volunteer.

Guidelines

Consultants and leaders understand and adhere to Girl Scout national guidelines and the Girl Scout position on sensitive issues. Consultants and resources selected will provide an informative rather than an advocacy point of view.
