

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

girl scouts
of the colonial coast

girl scouts
1912-2012
celebrating 100 years of girl scouting

Troop

Want to help young girls explore their interests, skills, goals, and dreams in a year-long program? Become a troop leader.

Camp

Like the great outdoors? Share your appreciation for nature by taking girls camping, hiking or canoeing. You can camp by day, overnight, or volunteer during summer day and resident camp season.

Events

Do you have high energy but limited availability? Come share your passion during half- or one-day Girl Scout events.

Series

Love dance? Chess? Surfing? Meet with girls 6 to 8 times sharing your passion and knowledge in a way that fits your schedule.

Travel

Want to expand girls' horizons? Take a group of girls traveling. Whether it's across town or the world, the adventure will stay with you forever.

Virtual

Girl Scouting via the Internet? Hey, it's 2010. Become a virtual volunteer and help bring exciting interactive activities to girls everywhere.

A Place For Girls

912 Cedar Road
Chesapeake, VA 23322
(757) 547-4405

Peninsula Service Center

813 Forrest Dr., Ste. B
Newport News, VA 23606
(757) 547-4405

Elizabeth City Field Center

214 N. Dyer St.
Elizabeth City, NC 27909
(252) 335-2291

Manteo Field Center

211 Budleigh St., Ste. 104
Manteo, NC 27954
(252) 305-8113

One girl can make a difference, girls together can change the world.

gsccc.org • (800) 77SCOUT

Find us on Facebook & Twitter

We are supported in part by

More choices.
More reasons to volunteer.

We help a girl discover who she can be and what she can do to make her world a better place.

The journey begins with the Girl Scout environment. Here, a girl's leadership potential blooms among other girls – away from school pressures and social cliques.

To discover who she can be, a girl needs the support of adults who are willing to listen, mentor and inspire her. To discover what she can do, she needs a variety of opportunities so she can “try on” different experiences. She needs adults to help give her those opportunities.

Imagine what an entire generation of girls could do, given the confidence, the skills, and the experience they need to lead.

We're looking for volunteers who represent the diversity of the world we live in – women, men, senior citizens, young adults, college students and people of all racial and ethnic backgrounds to make that happen.

Young Adults

Research tells us that teen girls need and want young adults to talk to and help guide them. Someone who may have gone through the same experiences they are going through not so long ago. Whether through Campus Connections or through another volunteer avenue, we need young adults to relate to girls' interests and concerns.

Professionals

Girl Scouts need your expertise and experience. Professional groups and organizations regularly partner with Girl Scouts, bringing their special skills and talents to girls who may not have access to them otherwise. Women role models in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM), can make a future career dream come true!

Parents

Build a stronger bond in your parent/child relationship through Girl Scouting. Consider volunteering to lead a troop or group, or serve on a troop committee. Grandparents and other family adults are invited to volunteer as well!

“She has the power to change her world. You have the power to help her do it.”

Girl Scout Alumna

Reconnect with an organization that continues to make a difference in girls' lives. Meet and network with other adults who may have similar interests. Offer your skills in a variety of ways, while making new memories.

Girls can participate in the Girl Scout Leadership Experience in a variety of pathways. As a volunteer, you can choose to help in one or more of these pathways, or you can give time and services in other ways that better meet your interests.