

Colleen Mollison, Member-at-Large

Colleen Mollison is an Assistant General Counsel for Ferguson Enterprises, LLC. She provides legal advice and guidance regarding a wide range of complex business matters, providing high quality, business focused legal support to different business groups within Ferguson Enterprises. Colleen holds a law degree from Florida Coastal School of Law in Jacksonville, Florida and a Bachelor's degree in Public Policy from James Madison University.

Born and raised in Norfolk, Virginia, Colleen was a member of Girl Scout Troop 743 from Brownies all the way through Ambassadors. She is a Lifetime Girl Scout and looks forward to continued participation with the Girl Scouts through her Board and Committee memberships.

In her free time, you can find Colleen hanging out with her husband Tom and their three children, Dottie (4), Tommy (2), and Callie (6 months). Her oldest daughter will be old enough to become a Daisy soon, and Colleen looks forward to watching her get involved with her own Girl Scout Troop.
