2022 Volunteer Awards

A woman in a blue Girl Scout uniform is hugging a young girl in a plaid shirt from behind. They are outdoors, with trees in the background. The entire image has a blue tint.

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by
the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong,
and responsible for
what I say and do,
and to
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a
better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Chief Executive Officer

Most of us will no doubt remember 2021 as the year of the COVID-19 vaccine and the start of returning to a state of some normalcy. It has been a long, rough road for everyone—individuals, families, businesses, nonprofits and our global community. Let's also remember it was a year of great growth in our Council, working together not only to survive, but to thrive. Together, we created and started to implement a sustainability plan that will ensure our future. Thanks to the dedication of volunteers who champion girl leadership through Girl Scouts, we've got this! We are Girl Scout strong.

Marisa Porto
GSCCC Board Chair

Every day, our amazing, dedicated and generous volunteers make all of the fun, friendship, leadership, and awesome new experiences that make up what it means to be a Girl Scout come to life for girls across our Council. Our 4,000 plus adult members who serve as volunteer troop leaders, co-leaders, cookie managers, facilitators, service unit coordinators and in many other capacities ensure that every girl has the potential to succeed in amazing ways. Hand-in-hand, side-by-side, they are the role models, coaches, and guides that girls desperately need today. They give girls the confidence to try new experiences through outdoor adventure, community engagement, STEM exploration, and countless other ways.

Volunteers give girls a model of leadership, civic engagement and instill in them the importance of “paying it forward.” So many of our volunteers are working full time, raising families, and doing other work for their communities, yet they know that investing in girls is an investment in all of our futures. Countless hours are given by these dedicated volunteers who contribute to the mission of Girl Scouting to build girls of courage, confidence and character, who make the world a better place.

We see the results. We see the confidence, the “we’ve got this” girl energy that only you can inspire. Because of you we have community. Because of you we have resilience. Because of you we have Girl Scouts. Although our volunteers are always appreciated, it is during this awards celebration that we take the time to acknowledge those special adult volunteer heroes who are the lifeblood of the Girl Scout Council of the Colonial Coast.

Congratulations to each and every one of these award recipients for the amazing contributions you make to Girl Scouting!

Dorothy Barber Award

This award honors a woman who has achieved success in her personal and professional life, has contributed to her community and to the Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast, and is a role model and mentor to other Girl Scouts. The award is named after former Council President Dorothy Barber, who served from 1993-1997, and is the highest adult award sponsored by Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast.

Dorothy Barber Award Ashley McLeod – 2022 Recipient

Ashley McLeod is a lifetime Girl Scout—and proud mother of Gold Award Girl Scout Allison McLeod—who is dedicated to the Girl Scout Mission. She became active in Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast in the 90s when she served on staff as a program manager and later joined the volunteer ranks. During her time as program manager, she introduced many environmental educational programs, especially within the day camp program. Ashley has served as a troop volunteer, board member and board committee member, including serving on the GSCCC Property Committee where she encouraged strong management practices to support the natural environment and research on alternative energy sources. She has assisted with several marketing and philanthropy projects. Many of us over the years have seen her at GSCCC's Annual Council Meetings, since she regularly emceed those events.

Ashley continues to be active and provides advice and opportunities to the Council. Ashley knows that it is important for girls and women to connect, to share their stories, their learnings, ideas and insights to create a collective force for problem solving and positive change. With the many contacts she has in the community of women leaders, those opportunities are endless!

She strongly believes in a girl-led program and continuously brings leadership opportunities to girls. When she was involved in her daughter's troop, she helped to ensure throughout the year each girl was responsible for leading a troop meeting, including organizing all aspects. The girls learned how to plan, speak in front of others, create an agenda, and lead a meeting.

“Investing in women's leadership requires a lifecycle approach to strengthening and supporting girls' leadership, adolescent girls' leadership, young women's leadership, and women's leadership,” Ashley says. “We know that investing in young women's leadership will not only change the trajectory of their future, but that of their communities as well.”

No matter what leadership position Ashley has served in, and there have been many, she brings along her interest in Girl Scouts. She is a master at networking and connecting Girl Scouts with new communities and audiences. Her leadership experience has included serving on the Virginia Beach School Board, Vice President of the Virginia Maritime Association and now principal owner of Blue Vase Solutions and part of the leadership team with Avangrid Renewable, a Kitty Hawk Offshore Wind Developer.

Volunteer of Excellence

The Volunteer of Excellence award recognizes volunteers who have contributed outstanding service while partnering directly with girls in any pathway to implement the Girl Scout Leadership Experience through use of the National Program Portfolio, or who have contributed outstanding service in support of the Council's mission delivery to girl and adult members.

Jennifer Adams

Service Unit 230 - Kempsville

Jennifer has been a GSCCC volunteer for six years and has served in many roles, including troop leader and volunteer service team member. Her fellow volunteer service team members appreciate her team spirit and willingness to go the extra mile when called upon. As someone who is skilled in helping girls learn to lead, not follow, she serves as an excellent role model for other leaders. She encourages a girl-led approach by allowing girls to vote on and implement their own activities. She models the behavior that she wants girls to learn. Her troop has supported and hosted many service unit events which have all received great reviews from younger girls. She does all of this while holding a full-time job and helping out with her son's Boy Scout troop. For the last several years, Jennifer has taken on full responsibility for organizing and leading the service unit's community service project. Through her arduous work and determination, the service unit was able to collect and fill 108 stockings for children served by the Salvation Army.

Volunteer of Excellence

Delicia Carswell
Service Unit 230
Troop 152 - Kempsville

Delicia has been the finance coordinator for the Kempsville Service Unit for three years. Her organization and record-keeping skills are unmatched. She manages to keep track of financial reports for the service unit as well as troop reports. She does this while assisting leaders with any financial questions or problems that may arise. She exemplifies the Girl Scout Promise and Law in action, always trustworthy, honest and fair, as well as friendly and helpful. The leaders appreciate her willingness to spend time explaining guidelines. During a year of extraordinary challenges due to the pandemic, she set up virtual meetings with troop leadership to better help them with their financial obligations. The service unit really has a gem in Delicia!

Christy Campbell
Service Unit 340 - Southern Chesapeake
Troop 602

Christy put in a tremendous amount of effort to ensure that the girls in her troop continued to have the Girl Scout experience, despite the challenges of the pandemic. She used creative and innovative measures to implement the Girl Scout program. While many troops lost members during these challenging times, Christy's troop added members. She and her co-leader balanced virtual and in-person meetings designed to encourage girls to look beyond their own lives and reach out to those around them in need. Her enthusiasm ignited their interest and commitment to Girl Scouting. Christy focuses on inclusion and truly embraces the Girl Scout Promise and Law. Her love for community service is evident and it is something the girls, a troop of 20 Daisies and Brownies, both admire and emulate. Some of her contributions include: 203 boxes of Girl Scout Cookies donated to the USO from her troop; stockings of treats and toys to the SPCA; 75 items collected for Ready Bags to Roc Solid Foundation; craft projects to the elderly; birthday bags to the food pantry; and a free little library in her troop's community. These are but a few of the take-action efforts she has done hand-in-hand with the girls.

Andrea Daniels
Service Unit 240 - Town Shores
Troop 207

Andrea is a seasoned troop leader who is known for being thorough and organized. She also serves as Troop 207's Cookie Chair. As a leader, she has helped with meetings, field trips, and communications that keep the troop running like clockwork. As cookie chair, she has done all she can to make sure the adults and girls have a quality experience. To do that, she has organized parent meetings, trained the girls, distributed forms and cookies, selected cookie booths, helped out at booths and then at the end, made sure all the girls received their awards. Even faced with the challenges of the pandemic, she never missed a beat. The troop had two super sellers last year! Thanks to Andrea, the troop is one of the top-selling troops in the Kempsville Service Unit. It takes a volunteer like Andrea, a true champion of girl leadership, to run a successful troop.

Victoria Fraenkel
Service Unit 340 - Southern Chesapeake
Troop 602

Victoria is a leader with a passion to help girls be all they can be, no matter the circumstances. During the pandemic, she found ways to provide the Girl Scout program to Daisies who were just getting involved in Girl Scouting. Thanks to Victoria's patience, kindness, and dedication, girls earned badges and thrived through the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. She is always ready to help in the community and gets her troop involved in take-action projects that have included gathering donations for her area's food pantry. In the beginning of the pandemic, she drew on her creativity and had the Daisies create short videos of themselves dancing, telling jokes or stories, then she shared these, with the permission of parents and girls, with others in her service unit. It made everyone come together and smile.

Erika Grasse
Service Unit 210 - Beach Central
Individual Member

As a troop leader and volunteer service team member for many years, Erika has given her best at every meeting and gathering. While many volunteers leave our Movement after their girls have graduated and are off to college, Erika has stayed and continued supporting girl leadership. When the girls in her troop graduated, she found a new role. She now helps with Council program events such as parades and STEM Club. She has also helped with virtual troop meetings for new girls on a waiting list and at recruitments. Her sunny and excited disposition always makes the girls and parents feel welcomed. In addition, Erika takes all the training available so she is fully prepared. She is a volunteer we count on within her service unit and elsewhere in the Council, helping from Gloucester to North Carolina! The service unit and the Council's program team appreciate her volunteer spirit!

Volunteer of Excellence

LeQuanda Moore
Service Unit 230 - Kempsville
Troop 216

LeQuanda serves in several roles, including a leading role as a service unit coordinator. In that role, she has done an excellent job in many areas such as communications to the families of the 430 girls who are in the service unit. This has required LeQuanda to be in the “know” on many things, such as current COVID guidelines and details on events. To do this, she regularly attends Council hosted meetings for volunteer service teams and is in communication with many, making sure she has the facts to relay to others. She has implemented a process of creating a monthly downloadable Power Point for more than 30 leaders and eight volunteer service team members, which has made accessing information so easy. This process has resulted in an increase in participation at service unit meetings and events. As a recruitment champion, she works to increase membership by organizing bring-a-friend events, visiting schools to share information and making sure if they have newsletters Girl Scouts is included. As a troop leader, she has continuously worked to help build girls of courage, confidence and character. She respects each and every girl’s voice and is a true role model.

Georgie Raymond
Service Unit 230 - Kempsville
Individual Member

Georgie has been a volunteer service team member for several years and has been the lead for engagement with individual girl members, helping them get involved in community service projects and events. Because she is so talented with event planning, she also helps with service unit and community events that included a leader appreciation event. She personally delivered thank you gifts to over 25 troop leaders! Georgie also helps with Council events and is a regular helper at the annual cookie drop. Georgie spreads kindness wherever she goes and to everyone she meets. The service unit is so fortunate to have a talented event planner who is ready with ideas to implement, and always in a very organized way that makes it look so easy.

Volunteer of Excellence

Amy Restrepo Service Unit 250 - Lynnhaven Shores Troop 232

Amy is an awesome team player who has made co-leading a troop a dream. As someone who is always open to new ideas, she is a great role model for girls. She is known as a person who never backs down from a challenge, in fact, she embraces them and sees them as opportunities to grow. She has led the girls in her troop through several badges, Journeys, and Bronze Awards. She has encouraged girls to go for their Silver and Gold Awards as well. Her motto is to always shoot for the stars! Her ability to manage groups of girls, and work with adults, no matter how difficult the situation may be, puts others in awe of her abilities. When her husband died suddenly two years ago, and with the onset of COVID, her life and the lives of her children changed dramatically; however, through it all she remained a supportive volunteer. She managed to keep her family and her troop moving forward and looking with hope towards the future. She is a confident and enthusiastic role model and a leader of excellence.

Heidi Salway Service Unit 230 - Kempsville Troop 152

Heidi has been a troop leader for six years. Her troop is one of the most active troops in the service unit, always on the move and always ready for community service. The troop has supported many service unit events and projects, taking on leading activities for younger girls. It has been amazing to see her in action as she has kept her troop engaged, even during the most challenging times. No matter how difficult, she manages to make sure the girls have their voices heard, whether in person or virtually. Thanks to her leadership, the troop donated 70 plus boxes of Gift of Caring Girl Scout Cookies to St. Mary's Home for Children. The troop also participated in stuffing stockings for the Salvation Army, which resulted in 108 stockings donated. She is an inspiration to other leaders and an asset to the service unit.

Volunteer of Excellence

Stephanie Schmuck Service Unit 150 - Poquoson, Yorktown Troop 1097

When Stephanie sees there's a job to be done, she does not hesitate to lend a helping hand. Thanks to her, Troop 1097 did not have a lapse in leadership, because she said yes. Always prepared, Stephanie got to work as a new leader immediately. At one of her first troop meetings, she engaged the girls in learning about Monarch butterflies. She brought all the supplies the girls needed, including soil, so they could do an experiment on the importance of soil drainage and butterfly sustainability. Like all things Stephanie does, she thoroughly researched the activity topic. One lesson used at a troop meeting became the springboard for more troop meeting activities. She contacted Virginia Beach Master Gardeners and obtained all the plants that the troop needed to create a garden at their meeting place! This is but one example of how she leads, with determination, commitment and love. Opportunities just seem to unfold in her care! The service unit is so fortunate to have this nurturing "gardener," helping them grow in so many ways.

"The work of today is the history of tomorrow, and we are its makers."

Girl Scout Appreciation Pin

This pin recognizes a registered adult Girl Scout's exemplary service in support of delivering the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. This service, which has had a measurable impact on one geographic area, helps reach and surpass the mission-delivery goals of that area.

Jessica Herron
Service Unit 150 - Poquoson, Yorktown
Troop 1432

Like many volunteers, Jessica first became involved as a helper in her daughter's troop, working to coordinate their cookie season. When the service unit needed help, she stepped up to lend a hand. She coordinated everything from collecting booth supplies to scheduling so that the service unit could host a drive-thru cookie booth—which turned out to be a huge hit! It was such a success that the volunteer service team asked if she would coordinate all the cookie booths, and she said yes. Jessica also accepted the position of co-leader of Troop 1432 when the troop was struggling. She made sure she learned more about the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, so she could help make the program come alive for the girls, which included taking them on outings and getting them involved in community service.

Courtney Walden
Service Unit 150 - Poquoson, Yorktown
Troop 1307

Courtney serves as a leader for Troop 1307 and is a member on the volunteer service team. As a leader, she is vigilant about taking training, keeping up-to-date on service unit events and opportunities, and she is responsible for turning in troop paperwork and reports. She leads an active troop that loves getting on the road and taking trips. The troop also enjoys being involved in community service work. For two consecutive years, Courtney has expanded her troop's community service project to be open to all girls in the service unit. Thanks to her help and leadership, 2,000 pounds of plastic bags were collected, counted and recorded, as part of the Trex Challenge, which resulted in two plastic benches, made with recycled materials, being donated to Camp Skimino. In addition to her leadership in community service work, Courtney also coordinates the service unit's Thinking Day event—held virtually in 2021—where she secured a Juliette Gordon Low impersonator to do a program. Courtney's creativity is an asset to Service Unit 150!

Thanks Badge

The Thanks Badge honors individual, active, registered adult Girl Scouts whose ongoing commitment, leadership, and service have had an exceptional, measurable impact on meeting the mission delivery goals and priorities of the council or the Girl Scout movement.

JoAn Berry Service Unit 230 - Kempsville Individual Member

JoAn started her Girl Scout journey more than 30 years ago when she stepped up to lead her daughter's Girl Scout Brownie troop. She never stopped volunteering. From troop leader and trainer to volunteer service team member and helping with Council events and product sale programs, she has been an active volunteer. She currently serves as a member on the Kempsville Service Unit's Volunteer service team and the GSCCC Philanthropy Committee. As a trainer, she has touched the lives of so many Girl Scout adults, from trainings on finance management to outdoor skill building. Her positive and go-getter personality makes her sought after by new leaders and her enthusiasm for the Girl Scout movement is contagious.

When JoAn volunteers, the good memories of her own years in the program are never far away. Those memories include having her mom as her Girl Scout leader, enjoying Girl Scouting with her three sisters and camping. One such Girl Scout camp experience included a flood of water entering her tent that prompted a swift evaluation in the middle of the night! Because Girl Scouts has been so important to her life, she chose to become a donor and member of the Council's Juliette Gordon Low Society.

When you ask fellow Girl Scouts to describe her, their responses commonly include, "She is always friendly" and "You can't find a better helper." This year, she served in a role she's very familiar with—coordinating the service unit's product program. Her skills as a trained facilitator came in handy. Leaders commented on how much they appreciated her teaching ability and her comfortable communication style. One thing all agreed upon, volunteers and parents alike, is that they appreciate the tremendous amount of time JoAn dedicates in the fall and during cookie season, spending late nights answering questions and creating reports. She puts her all into the role and then some, as she also takes on organizing the service unit's Cookie Rally, which ignites the girls' enthusiasm for the program. In addition, JoAn has given a helping hand at the Council's Count-n-Go events each year, helping make sure that troops and service units receive their initial cookie orders in "JoAn" style—orderly but with a lot of fun!

Barbara Tierney Virginia Beach Past Board Chair

Barbara is a dedicated champion of girl leadership and all things Girl Scouts. She served on GSCCC's Board of Directors for several years before becoming the Council's Board Chair in 2019. Her passion is rooted in four generations of Girl Scouting that spanned several continents. Girl Scouts was a family affair and the family took Girl Scouting everywhere, even to Venezuela during a job relocation. Since there were no Girl Guides or Girl Scouts there, Barbara's mom, Betty, a seasoned Girl Scout volunteer from the States, started the first one! Like all things in their lives, the family dedicated themselves to the troop and it grew, and to such a significance, that Lady Baden Powell, the founder of Girl Guiding, honored them with a visit and recognition. There were many, many exciting Girl Scout moments during Barbara's girl and young adult years that included serving on camp staff and being chosen to represent Girl Scouts on two international trips based on her leadership abilities.

It is no wonder that this alum would move from being an exemplary girl member in Girl Scouts to being an outstanding adult member. Her savvy finance skills that helped her rise in the banking world to become a Vice President at TowneBank have been greatly appreciated by the GSCCC Board of Directors. Her interest in the girls, and her dedication to connecting with them by participating in various events and working directly with them on projects, has been most impressive. She has a rare ability of being able to focus on the girls while also looking to the future and what it holds for the Council. A most notable example was her leadership during the pandemic. Barbara methodically rolled out a plan to review, analyze, and take action to help with the sustainability of the Council. She made sure all stake-holders had a voice, including troop and community volunteers. She also displayed great leadership during the 2020 National Council Meeting.

Whatever Barbara does, she does it with zeal and determination. On her Board Chair patch, the words "Bee Fierce" are embroidered, and there is an image of a bee to represent the "B" in Barbara. How perfect, because she is truly a fearless leader, a role model for all girls, and someone who accepts any challenge that benefits Girl Scouts!

Juliette Gordon Low Society

In March 1912, Juliette Gordon Low gathered just a few girls to begin Girl Scouts. Juliette's outstanding leadership was matched by her stewardship when she converted the carriage house of her home into the first Girl Scout national headquarters, and she gifted the property to Girl Scouts in her will. Juliette's bequest was the beginning of planned giving to Girl Scouts. In memory, the Juliette Gordon Low Society was established to thank and honor friends of Girl Scouting who choose to make Girl Scouts part of their legacies and a beneficiary of their estate plans.

Become a member for life—and you'll be a champion of girls for years to come.

You can champion the next generation of change-makers by investing in Girl Scouts and becoming a member for life. When you sign up as a lifetime member, $25 of your contribution automatically funds a year of membership for a Girl Scout in an underserved community in your area. As a result, in just a few years, lifetime membership has funded more than 30,000 memberships for Girl Scouts whose families would not have otherwise been able to afford it. A Girl Scout Lifetime Membership costs $400 or, for alums under age 30 and/or currently registered volunteers with ten or more years of service, the cost is $200. Your lifetime membership donation is tax-deductible as allowed by law.
