

Amanda Howie, Member-at-Large

Amanda Howie successfully led a Virginia Beach troop of girls from Daisies to Ambassadors and serves on her service unit's leadership team. She is also a member of the GSCCC Philanthropy Committee. Amanda received the Honor Pin Service Award in April 2021. She is a Girl Scout Lifetime Member and a member of the Juliette Gordon Low Society. Amanda is an alum of Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) in Richmond, graduating in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in Mass Communications.

Amanda is in her 15th year of public service to criminal justice in Virginia. She is currently the Administrator of the Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys (VACA) following serving as the Director of Communications for the Office of the Norfolk Commonwealth's Attorney. Her prior professional experience includes producing local television newscasts for WVEC-TV in Hampton Roads and WTVD-TV in Raleigh/Durham, North Carolina.

Beyond Girl Scouts, Amanda's volunteer activities include supporting VCU through various alumni activities, serving with the children's and teen students' programs at her church, and participating in several professional development organizations – Hampton Roads Association of Legal Administrators (HRAA), National Association of Legal Administrators (NALA), and National Association of Prosecutor Coordinators (NAPC).
