

Leonard Brown, Member-at-Large

Dr. Leonard Brown Jr. serves as the Vice President for Students Affairs at Norfolk State University and has been in the position since July 2020. His responsibilities broadly include the out-of-class experience for all graduate and undergraduate students. The Division of Student Affairs portfolio includes Housing and Residential Life, Student Activities and Leadership, Campus Life and Diversity, The Dean of Students Office, Military Services, Student Support Services, Accessibility Services and International Student Services, Career Services, and Student Advocacy and Wellness (Counseling and Health Services).

Dr. Brown's entire professional career has been in student affairs in higher education. Prior to NSU, he served as the Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students at St. Mary's College in Maryland. Prior to that Dr. Brown served as the Dean of Students at Dickinson College in Pennsylvania which is his alma mater. Dr. Brown holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology, a Master's degree in Higher Education Administration, a Master's degree in Theology, and a Doctorate in Management.

Dr. Brown is originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where he grew up and was educated through high school. He resides in Virginia Beach, Virginia and has three daughters who are currently a junior at University of Pittsburgh and first-year students (twins) at Towson University in Baltimore and Boston University.