

Lu Ann Klevecz, Member-at-Large

Lucinda (Lu Ann) W. Klevecz is the General Counsel and Managing Director for Harbor Group International, LLC (HGI), a commercial real estate investment company headquartered in Norfolk, Virginia, and has supervisory authority for all legal matters and legal related personnel for both HGI and its affiliate, Harbor Group Management Co. She is also the Chief Compliance Officer for HGI affiliates and is responsible for all compliance matters for the companies.

Prior to joining HGI in 2004, Ms. Klevecz was Vice President at Resource Bank, in Virginia Beach, Virginia, managing corporate communications, investor relations and human resources.

While living in Germany as a military spouse, Ms. Klevecz served as Chairwoman of American Women's Activities, Germany (AWAG), a non-profit organization that provides networking and training opportunities to all non-profit and volunteer organizations affiliated with US military forces throughout Europe. In her capacity as AWAG Chairwoman, she served as a board representative to the Department of Defense Dependent Schools, the school board for all primary and secondary schools worldwide within the Department of Defense. She has been active in many volunteer capacities at various times, holding leadership positions in Cub Scouts, band and sports booster clubs, and spouse organizations affiliated with US Army installations.

Ms. Klevecz holds a law degree from Regent University in Virginia Beach and a Bachelor's Degree from Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas. She currently resides in Yorktown, Virginia, and enjoys spending time with her family, including eight grandchildren, three of whom are Girl Scouts. She also enjoys sailing on the Elizabeth River with Sail Nauticus.
