ABOUT OUR ORGANIZATION

We are one of 111 councils chartered by Girl Scouts of the USA, the world's leading organization dedicated solely to girls, where, in an accepting and nurturing environment, girls build character and skills for success. In partnership with caring adults, girls develop qualities to serve them all their lives: strong values, social conscience, and conviction about their potential, and self-worth. We serve nearly 8,000 girls throughout southeastern Virginia and northeastern North Carolina.

SUMMARY OF POSITION

The volunteer specialist is responsible for providing support to volunteers (troop, service unit, or administrative teams and committees) within an assigned geographic or functional area. They are responsible for supporting the implementation of innovative strategies and effective service for supporting girl and adult membership through the service unit structure.

ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Provide volunteers with advice and support in all facets of the volunteer management system including recruitment, placement, training, retention, recognition, and evaluation.
- Proactively work to retain members by organizing, implementing, and promoting girl and volunteer renewal and be responsible for specific retention goals in a geographic area.
- Interpret the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, Volunteer Essentials, council policies, and safety procedures for the effective delivery of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience.
- Collaborate on the development of innovative strategies for supporting girl and adult membership through the troop and service unit structure.
- Appoint and mentor administrative volunteers. Collaboratively identify volunteers for appointment to additional volunteer roles.
- Attend community volunteer meetings (some evenings and weekends required).
- Assist in planning, promoting, and executing of volunteer conferences and recognition events.
- Promote volunteer trainings, girl programs, events, camp, travel, and troop volunteerism to volunteers, girls, families, and community members.
- Contact leaders of newly formed troops to offer support, and visit new troops as needed to provide support and oversight of quality.
- Reorganize troop leadership in conjunction with recruitment and conversion teams when troop volunteers resign or are removed.
- Mediate volunteer relationships when necessary, and appropriately report more sensitive issues to senior staff.

- May facilitate, develop, or record volunteer trainings as needed.
- Actively support and promote the Council's commitment to excellent customer service, membership growth, community visibility, fundraising, diversity, and safety.

In addition to the above duties, incumbents may become functional experts in the following areas:

Troop Expert

- Mentor adult volunteers to work with girls in assigned grade level.
- Coordinate extended travel requests.
- Counsel volunteers on the purchase of appropriate travel insurance.

Girl Awards Expert

- Serve as staff liaison to the Gold Award Volunteer Committee.
- Coordinate Girl Scout Girl Award (Bronze, Silver, Gold) trainings, workshops, and events.
