Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast Names New Vice President of Member Engagement

Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast has named Terri Washington as its vice president of member engagement.

Washington began her Girl Scout adventure in New Jersey before making her way to Virginia to further her education at Hampton University. She graduated in 1986 with a Bachelor of Science in Marketing. Her professional career began at Dominion Virginia Power in the customer service department. Shortly after, Washington had two daughters who allowed her to continue the legacy of being involved in Girl Scouts. She became their troop leader and immediately knew she wanted to leave a lasting impression on not just her daughters or her troop, but every girl in the Council's jurisdiction.

Washington excitedly joined the staff at GSCCC in Newport News, Va. in October of 1999. Since becoming a professional Girl Scout about 20 years ago, Washington has been recognized for her continued success on the team and was awarded the Honor Pin in 2013 and her 20 year pin this year. More recently, she has become a Sandler trainer for GSUSA.

Washington is passionate about the mission of Girl Scouts to build girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place. In her new position, she is especially looking forward to building additional relationships in the community. She hopes to educate the community on the goals girls achieve when they participate in Girl Scouts.

About Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast

Girl Scouts of the Colonial Coast, a United Way agency, serves nearly 11,000 girls in grades K through 12 with the help of nearly 5,000 adult volunteers in southeastern Virginia and northeastern North Carolina. Girl Scouts offers a one-of-a-kind leadership development program for girls, unleashing the G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)[™] in every girl. Since 1912, Girl Scouts has been building girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place. To volunteer, reconnect, donate or join, visit www.gscucc.org or call 1-800-77SCOUT.
