

Dear Partner in Education,

Welcome to the first electronic edition of the Girl Sprouts newsletter! We hope you will use this to introduce girls to the fun that awaits them as Girl Scout Daisies. Girls can play in the Daisy Garden through activities we'll be sending in each month's Girl Sprouts newsletter. They'll meet some fun flower characters along the way and learn about the Girl Scout Promise and Law!

Girl Scout Daisies are the youngest members of the Girl Scout family. They begin their adventure when they are in kindergarten and first grade. They are named after Juliette "Daisy" Gordon Low, the founder of Girl Scouts.

A fun activity to learn about the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

Instructions: You will give each girl a clear cup and write their name on the outside. Then, without explaining anything, start handing out candy, and counting out loud. Give the first girl 5 pieces, give the second girl 4 pieces, and the third girl only 2 pieces. As most kids do, the girls will start to complain and probably tell you "This isn't fair" or "Why did she get 5 and I only got 2?" After you have handed out candy to every girl, it's time to ask the girls "How we can make this more fair? How do we make it so each girl gets the same amount of candy and it is divided more fairly?" Then, give the girls time to figure out how to equally divide the candy. This will teach your girls the importance of sharing and being fair to everyone.
