Girl Scouts helps girls thrive in five key ways as they:

- Develop a strong sense of self
- Seek challenges and learn from setbacks
- Display positive values
- Form and maintain healthy relationships
- Identify and solve problems in their communities

Girl Scouts seek out new challenges, build important skills, and take the lead, all while receiving the support of our inclusive network of girls and women who champion every girl’s potential to create her own success—whatever that looks like to her.

Research shows that girls learn best in an all-girl environment where they practice different skills, explore their potential, and take on leadership positions. At Girl Scouts, they’ll always feel encouraged to dust themselves off, get up, and try again.

Since March 12, 1912, when the original G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)™ powerhouse, Juliette Gordon “Daisy” Low, organized the very first Girl Scout troop in her hometown of Savannah, Georgia, Girl Scouts has provided girls of all ages and backgrounds with thousands of unique, girl-led experiences. Through Girl Scouts, girls are challenged, connected, and encouraged to take meaningful action at every turn. We’re not stopping until every girl is prepared to empower herself for a lifetime of leadership, success, and adventure.

As a Girl Scout, your girl will participate in the Girl Scout Leadership Experience—a proven, one-of-a-kind leadership development program (and the largest in the world!) where she will:

- Engage in healthy activities
- Find her entrepreneurial spirit and learn financial literacy
- Explore the great outdoors
- Participate in hands-on science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) skill building
- Connect with girls around the world
- Carry out meaningful community service projects
- Take the lead in her own life and in the world
- Earn badges and pursue the Girl Scout Gold Award
- Discover her future potential

Every step of the way, she’ll lead her experience and learn by doing in a collaborative environment created by and for every G.I.R.L. And with the support of her peers and caring adults, she’ll have so many opportunities to jump in and make amazing things happen.

Girl Scout alums are change-makers in every sense of the word! Every day they’re effecting change on a local, national, and international level, consistently breaking ground as leaders in:

- Congress
- STEM
- The arts
- Business
- And so many other places!
