

Christy L Murphy, Member-at-Large

Christy was a Girl Scout for many years. Christy attended Virginia Tech and Old Dominion University and earned a bachelor's degree in biology with a minor in business and chemistry. She then attended Regent University Law School and has been a licensed attorney in Virginia since 2006.

Christy is a partner at Bischoff Martingayle, P.C., where she practices many types of civil litigation including domestic, will, trusts, and estates, landlord tenant, real property, construction, and business disputes.

Christy and her husband, Albert, have two children, Reagan and Chase, and a doggie princess named Ruby. Christy and her family live in Chesapeake, where both she and Albert grew up.