

Deneen Keegan, Member-at-Large

Deneen is an assurance director with Forvis Mazars, a global professional services firm that offers accounting, audit, tax, financial advisory, outsourcing and consulting services. She has 30+ years of public accounting experience and concentrates in the nonprofit and hospitality industries. Deneen is also a member and past chair of her firm's inclusion network, Women Forward, which exists to foster a culture of inclusion, equity and belonging; recruit, retain and advance women; and address the issues that affect women in the workplace and in society.

She has been an active member of GSCCC's Finance Committee since 2012 and first became interested in Girl Scouts and its benefits to girls and the community when her daughter joined as a Junior in 5th grade; she earned her Gold Award in 2019.

Originally from Long Island, NY, Deneen attended SUNY (State University of NY) Geneseo. She has lived in Chesapeake since 2001 with her husband Michael, son Christopher, and a Eurasier dog named Wisky. In her spare time Deneen dances and most recently attended Irish soft shoe classes at Rhodes School of Irish Dance, tap class at Dynamic Dance Center, and Jazzercise.
