

Lu Ann Klevecz, Vice Chair

Lucinda (Lu Ann) W. Klevecz, Esq. served as general counsel and managing director for Harbor Group International, LLC (HGI), a commercial real estate investment company headquartered in Norfolk, Virginia. She supervised all legal matters and legal related personnel for both HGI and its affiliate, Harbor Group Management Co. and served as Chief Compliance Officer for HGI and its affiliates. She retired in December 2021. She was recognized as a “Legal Elite” in the practice area of corporate counsel by Virginia Business Magazine, 2015-2021.

Prior to joining HGI in 2004, Ms. Klevecz was a vice president at Resource Bank, in Virginia Beach, managing corporate communications, investor relations and human resources.

Ms. Klevecz currently serves on an advisory committee at Eastern Virginia Medical School in Norfolk and on the Membership and Development Committee at Sail Nauticus.

Ms. Klevecz holds a law degree from Regent University in Virginia Beach and a bachelor’s degree from Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas. She currently resides in Yorktown, Virginia. She and her husband enjoy playing golf in coastal North Carolina, sailing their sailboat, Swan Song on the Chesapeake Bay, and spending time with their family and eight grandchildren, including a Girl Scout Brownie, Junior, and Cadette.