

Dr. Vera Combs Campbell, Member At Large

Dr. Vera Combs Campbell received her bachelor's degree in Biological Sciences from Hampton University and her doctor of philosophy degree in Pharmacology and Toxicology from the Medical College of Virginia/Virginia Commonwealth University (MCV/VCU). She received additional training as a Post-Doctoral Fellow at the National Institute on Drug Abuse Intramural Research Program and at the Collaborative Alcohol Research Center at Howard University in the Department of Pharmacology. Lastly, Vera holds a graduate certificate in Higher Education Assessment from James Madison University. She brings almost 17 years of experience teaching the basic sciences to students at the Hampton University School of Pharmacy.

As an Associate Professor in the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Vera teaches Biology, Anatomy and Physiology, Pathophysiology, and Pharmacology. She also developed an elective course entitled Drugs of Abuse in which she lectures and coordinates. As the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs and Assessment, Dr. Campbell Chairs the Assessment Committee and is responsible for programmatic and curricular assessment for the school. She currently serves as the University's Program Review Committee Chair, Nuventive Improve Assessment Implementation Team Co-Chair, and is Chairperson Pro Tempore of the Faculty.

Vera is dedicated to the betterment of the community and is an active volunteer at the Genieve Shelter, Virginia Department of Health (Medical Reserve Corp), and Girl Scout Troop #330. She is the corresponding secretary for the Suffolk (VA) Chapter of The Links, Incorporated, an international, not-for-profit service organization that promotes education, exposure to the arts, economic development, and implementation of public policy in underrepresented minority communities in the city of Suffolk and its surrounding counties.

She has been married to her loving husband, Chande Campbell, for 25 years. Her best accomplishment has been serving as the mother of two children, Morgan Campbell, a Girl Scout Cadette in Troop #330 and Chande Miles Campbell, an incoming freshman Computer Science major at George Mason University.
