Celebrating Spirituality and Faith

We're proud that Girl Scouts is welcoming and inclusive to members of all faiths. Everything in Girl Scouting is based on the Girl Scout Promise and Law, which includes many principles and values that are common across religions. Because we understand that religious instruction is at the center of many families and communities, we invite Girl Scouts to take spiritual journeys via their faith's religious recognitions.

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try To serve God and my country,
to help people at all times,
and to live by the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Law

I will do my best
To be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do,
and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

My Promise, My Faith

All Girl Scouts are invited to earn the My Promise, My Faith pin by exploring the connections between the Girl Scout Law and teachings from their faith. This pin can be earned each year. Requirements for this pin are included in The Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting for all levels.

Created by national religious organizations to encourage the spiritual growth of youth members, religious recognition programs reinforce many of the values integral to Girl Scouting and help girls grow stronger in and learn more about their chosen faith. Each religious organization develops and administers its own program, which can be found at praypub.org, including resources such as a video explaining religious recognition programs.

Faith Partners and Girl Scouts

Faith partners have been working with Girl Scouts since 1912 to reach out to communities and serve girls and families. Some ways that faith partners can work with Girl Scouts include hosting a troop, engaging Girl Scouts in service opportunities, and helping girls earn their My Promise, My Faith pin and other religious recognitions. If you're a faith-based organization, learn more about how you can partner with Girl Scouts to build compassionate leaders with the values and skills to make our world a better place by contacting faith@gsgccc.org. You can also recognize Girl Scouts in your faith community during Girl Scout Week. Each March, during the week of Girl Scouts' birthday, faith partners join us to help girls celebrate the connections between their faith and Girl Scouts. Celebration days include Girl Scout Sunday, Girl Scout Jummah, Girl Scout Sabbath and Girl Scout Shabbat. Find resources to plan your event by visiting our website's Faith Partners page at www.gsgccc.org.

Want to get involved as an adult volunteer?

No experience is required to be a champion for girls! Caring adult volunteers can help support Girl Scouts on their leadership journey and help them strengthen their understanding of their faith.
