

Spring Break or Spring Fever?

Spring is here and Girl Scouts have so many options for fun in the outdoors, from climbing and canoeing to planning a week at camp with their besties. How will you spend your spring break? (Hint: We have more than a few opportunities to share with you in this newsletter!)

Do you have spring fever? Are emotions intense? Here is a fun activity you can try (indoors or out) with your friends, your family, or your Girl Scout troop, to learn how to feel those big feelings and still keep the peace.

How to Thank a Girl Scout Volunteer

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month, the perfect time to recognize and thank the superhumans who make Girl Scouting incredible, including troop leaders, service unit leaders, cookie volunteers, and more! Whether it's a heartfelt note, a small hand-made token of gratitude, or a personal shoutout, there are so many ways to show appreciation for the people who help create unforgettable Girl Scout memories.

Check out our Volunteer Appreciation Month page for ideas, activities, downloads, and a new customizable e-card service from GSUSA!
